

Jesus And Your Image

Lesson 3

Dear Parents,

This week we finished the third lesson in our four-session study about what Jesus had to say about our image. Hopefully, your teen came away encouraged and empowered to be authentic in how he or she represents themselves to the world.

This week, the lesson was entitled “You Are What You Do.” We talked about how you are recognized by your actions, and your image as a Christ-follower is proven authentic by your actions. Your student was challenged to “bear fruit,” living an authentic and God pleasing life.

We looked at the following Scripture passages:

- Luke 6:43-45
- Philippians 1:27

These passages will help you understand what it means to bear fruit.

Next Steps . . .

During the next week as you have time to talk with your teen, consider asking the following questions:

- Do you think it’s fair that you are under more scrutiny because you identify as a Christ-follower? Why or why not?
- What is one area that is a challenge for you when it comes to your actions matching your identity as a Christ-follower?
- How can I pray for you in this area?

Thank you for all you do. If you have any questions about anything, please don’t hesitate to call me.
